Arraign Robbery Suspects

Two robbery suspects were arraigned in Southwest Superior Court Tuesday, but only after an attorney for one of the men requested a change in location of the trial because of feelings in Torrance after the murder of a Torrance police officer.

Wayne Herndon, 30, and Gerald Neese, 25, are accused of robbing Better Foods Market of $12,000 two days after Officer David Selbert was killed trying to stop a similar robbery.

Setting of a trial date for Herndon was postponed until Oct. 10, but Neese was ordered Tuesday to trial Oct. 10.

Both suspects are charged with two counts of armed robbery and two counts each of kidnapping during the robbery. They were apprehended a short time after the hold-up by Torrance police who spotted the suspects outside the market as they were exiting.

Neese's lawyer requested a change of venue but was told by Superior Court Judge Bernard Lawler that it was not the appropriate time to ask for the change.

Red Cross Instructs New Parents

Classes begin Wednesday at Little Company of Mary Hospital, 4101 Torrance Blvd. Classes will be conducted Wednesdays and Mondays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. for seven sessions.

The courses include information on family nutrition, prenatal and post partum care, labor and delivery, and the care of the infant during the first years of life. Students also learn practical skills such as feeding, diapering, bathing, and dressing a baby.

Prospective parents may contact Red Cross to enroll.
